

EN How to choose a whiteboard? According to your use, we recommend you the best whiteboard

WHITEBOARD FOR PERSONAL USE		DECORATIVE USE	WHITEBOARD FOR BUSINESS USE	WHITEBOARD FOR SCHOOL USE
Whiteboards for personal use for use at home or in small rooms. Available in wall version, with supports, and different materials. Recommended Minimum Size: 40 x 60 cm.			Whiteboards for use in meeting rooms or small classrooms. Available wall version, with supports, and in different materials. Recommended Minimum Size: 100 x 120 cm.	Whiteboards for use in larger classrooms for more students. Available mural version and different materials. Recommended Minimum Size: 120 x 250 cm.
LACQUERED	LAMINATED	PAINT	GLASS	ENAMELLED

Magnetic white surface of lacquered metal sheet heated to more than 100°C. Includes aluminium foil for added strength. Easy maintenance.	White surface (for markers) or chalk board. Surface in high pressure laminated board (HPL). Extremely resistant to impacts and usage. Easy maintenance. Not magnetic.	Wall paint to turn any surface into a board. Can be marked with erasers in dry conditions. Available in white and clear.	Glass painted in white 4 mm thick with a 0.8 mm sheet of galvanized iron. Magnetic. Easy maintenance and erasure because of the low porosity of the material. Resistant to graze, chemicals, fire, bacteria and graffiti.	White surface (for markers) or chalk board. Manufactured in vitrified steel formed by a 0.7 mm steel core sheet covered with a thin coating of enamel, which melts with the steel at 800 ° C. Made with 30% recycled steel. Recyclable at 99.9%. It can be written on with dry erase markers, semi permanent, water soluble or permeant without damaging it. Lifetime warranty. Resistant to scratches, abrasion, chemicals, fire, bacteria and graffiti. Easy maintenance. Higher colour contrast. Improved visibility and optimum visual comfort. Magnetic.

Magnetic board

White board

Chalkboard